I think it's cool. You should see the hate on Slashdot though. Blows my mind. Those guys are too much sometimes.

That's great, big kudos to James! Not sure what on earth the slashdotters could find to gripe about with that video?? I was going to check, out of curiosity, but ya know what, I don't even want to know.

I just saw a similar article about James, think it was on some sort of DIY gadget site. There is simply no substitute for sourcing a real, honest to goodness nose section from a real airplane. Gorgeous sim!
